

2021 Western Sky Community Care State 4A-5A Track & Field Championships

Los Alamos Girls Dominate 4A State Track Championships

Dominant is the word to describe this year's Class 4A competition. The Los Alamos girls posted one of the highest team totals anyone can remember with a winning score of 183.50 at the Western Sky Community Care Class 4A State Track and Field Championships. The Hilltoppers more than doubled second place Artesia who finished with 76.20 points. Albuquerque Academy was third with 44.20.

Los Alamos had a monopoly on first-place finishes, winning 11 of the 20 events. They won the 4x100m relay (49.05), 4x200m relay (1:45.39), 4x400m relay (4:07.74), and 1600m relay (4:25.05). The only relay they failed to win was the 4x800m which went to Albuquerque Academy (10:26.28).

Los Alamos junior Holly Sanchez helped her team with a victory in the 100m dash (12.67) while her teammate Nyla Lee, a sophomore, won the 200m dash (26.48). Tia Hartzol of Los Alamos won the 400m dash (1:00.08). As you can tell, Los Alamos dominated most events, including wins in the 800m run (Emma Montoya-2:21.50), 1600m run (Hailey McDowell-5:31.30), long jump (Angelina Passalac-17'3"). Senior Bailey Yost was the high point finisher racking up 23.5 points with wins in the high jump (5'2") as well as her participation in their relays.

Artesia's Sadi Butler was a multiple event winner finishing first in the 100m hurdles (15.29) before breaking her mom's school record in the 300m hurdles (45.21). Academy sophomore Gigi Galles won the triple jump (36'2.50") and Kylyie Paden of Portales took top honors in the pole vault (10'7"). Artesia freshman Lori Wagner won the shot put (35'10.75") while Shealee Gallegos of Bloomfield won the discus (104'). Artesia senior Ryleigh Greer won the javelin (119') and Vanessa Gallegos of Lovington won the 3200m event.

Los Alamos Boys Win 2021 State Track & Field Title

Los Alamos made it a girls-and-boys sweep at the Western Sky Community Care Class 4A State Track and Field Championships. The Hilltoppers finished with 99 points, Albuquerque Academy was second (80) and Lovington was third (38).
