2023 Western Sky Community Care State Cross Country Championships
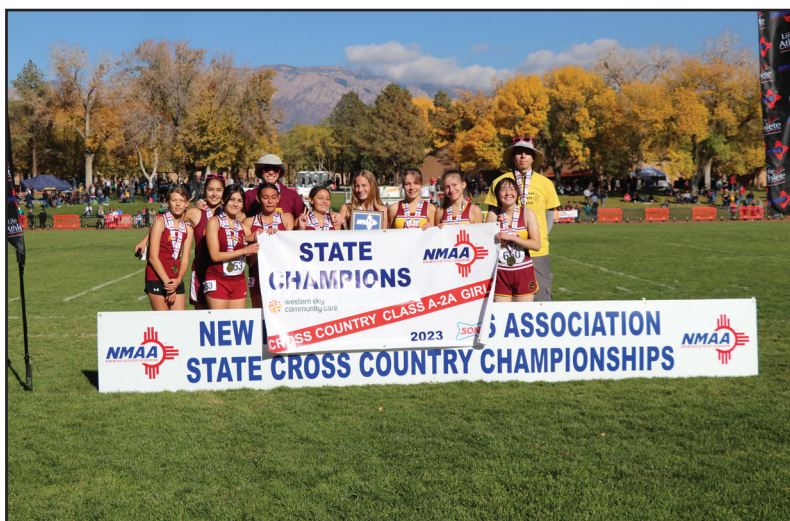

Class A-2A
Boys

Oak Grove won the Boys Class A-2A Title at the 2023 Western Sky Community Care State Cross Country Championships. Oak Grove finished with a winning total of 60 points. Pecos was second with 62 and Laguna Acoma third with 76. Individually, Lucas Williams of Laguna Acoma finished first with a time of 16:18.

Girls

Academy for Technology and the Classics won the Girls Class A-2A Title at the 2023 Western Sky Community Care State Cross Country Championships. ATC finished with a winning total of 61 points. Legacy Academy was second with 84 and Gateway Christian third with 159. It's the third state title for ATC over the last five years. Individually, Olivia Marquez, an 8th grader running for Oak Grove, finished first with a time of 19:03.
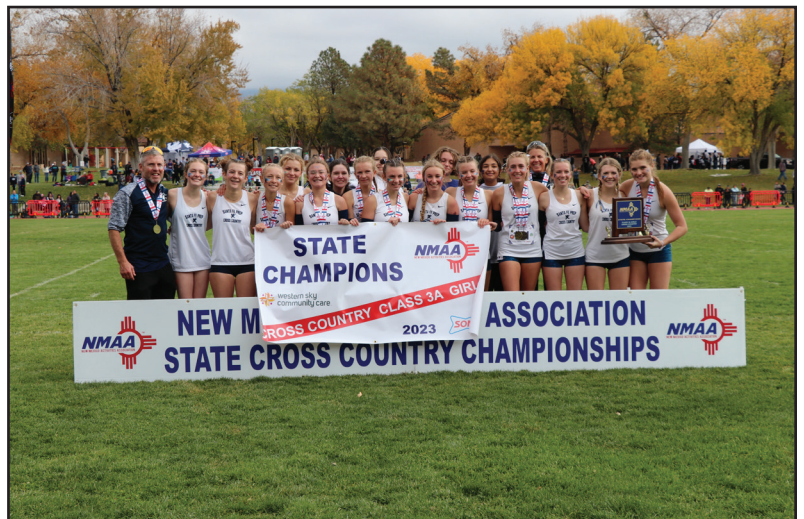

Class 3A
Boys
Zuni won the Boys Class 3A Title at the 2023 Western Sky Community Care State Cross Country Championships. Zuni finished first with a winning total of 68 points. Santa Fe Indian School was second with 78 and Navajo Prep third with 82. It's the third straight state title for Zuni. Individually, Landen Sandoval of St. Michael's finished first with a time of 16:01.

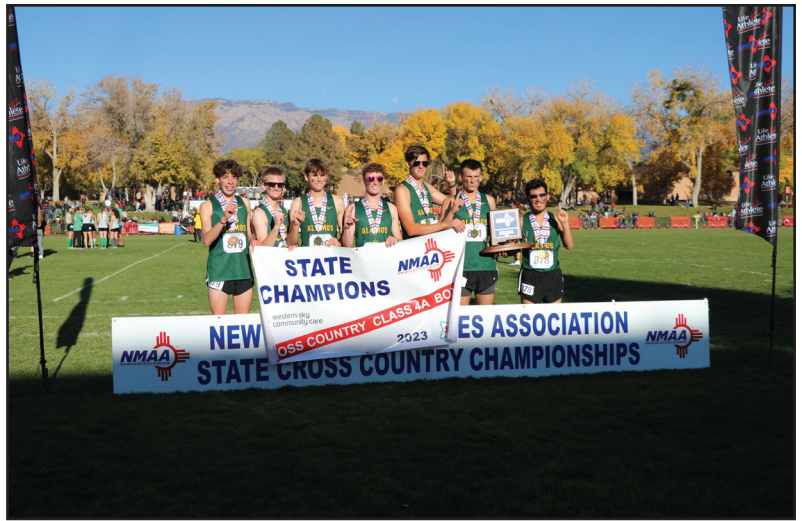

Girls
Santa Fe Prep won the Girls Class 3A Title at the 2023 Western Sky Community Care State Cross Country Championships. Santa Fe Prep finished first with a winning total of 57 points. Sandia Prep was second with 73 and Cottonwood Classical third with 101. Santa Fe Prep had three of the top six runners. Individually, Chloe Grieco, an 8th grader at St. Michael's, finished first with a time of 18:15.

Class 4A
Boys

Los Alamos won the Boys Class 4A Title at the 2023 Western Sky Community Care State Cross Country Championships. The Hilltoppers finished first with a winning total of 58 points. Albuquerque Academy was second with 65 and Gallup third with 85. It's the third straight state title for Los Alamos. Individually, Judah Daffron of Taos High School finished first with a time of 16:02.

Girls

Albuquerque Academy won the Girls Class 4A Title at the 2023 Western Sky Community Care State Cross Country Championships. The Chargers finished first with a winning total of 26 points. Los Alamos was second with 31 and Gallup third with 105. The Chargers had five of the top eleven runners. It's the first state title for Albuquerque Academy since 2018. Individually, Anna Hastings of Albuquerque Academy finished first with a time of 18:17.

Class 5A
Boys
Rio Rancho won the Boys Class 5A Title at the 2023 Western Sky Community Care State Cross Country Championships. The Rams finished first with a winning total of 34 points. Volcano Vista was second with 57 and Cleveland third with 94. Rio Rancho had five of the top 12 runners. It's the second straight state title for the Rams. Individually, Charlie Vause of Rio Rancho High School finished first with a time of 15:17.

Girls
Rio Rancho won the Girls Class 5A Title at the 2023 Western Sky Community Care State Cross Country Championships. The Rams finished first with a winning total of 48 points. La Cueva was second with 86 and Cleveland third with 90. It's the second state championship for Rio Rancho over the last four years. Individually, Gianna Rahmer, an 8th grader running for Eldorado High School, finished first with a time of 16:58.