Modify Bylaw 3.3 Requirements for Coaches, Sponsors and Advisors

For liability purposes, one sentence will be added to each of the current bylaws listed below that will require appropriate school personnel to be present before and during a game/contest/event in order for their students/teams to participate.

3.3.1 Coaching License Requirement

Coaches must have a coaching license issued by the State Education Agency and be an employee or have a contractual relationship with that particular school/district (this applies to both voluntary and paid individuals).

3.3.2 Activity Advisor Requirements

Local Activity Advisors for a member organization must be an employee or have a contractual relationship with that particular school/district.

Modify bylaw 8.1.7 Home School Student Eligibility

Since home school teams are not accredited institutions approved by the Public Education Department, they cannot become members of the NMAA. This proposal will remove the following references to those teams from the bylaws:

B. The individual activity, based on the constitution of its national governing organization, has the purview to allow home school teams to participate.

C. A home school student who participates on a home school team is not eligible for state awards.

D. A home school team, although eligible to participate in state competitions, is ineligible to compete for state awards.

Limit coaching during events to Tee-to-Green

This proposal will modify NMAA bylaws to state that during competition, communication between coach and player is only allowed from tee-to-green. Once the player and his/her golf ball are on the green, no communication may occur between the player and the coach until the player has completed the hole and then arrived at the teeing ground for the next hole.

If approved by the membership, this will take effect for the Spring 2016 golf season.

Football Dual Participation

NMAA bylaw 9.5.A currently contains the following notation:

Note: If in a particular sport, a school allows an athlete to participate on school and non-school teams simultaneously, the non-school affiliated games do not count against the athlete's game limit.

For safety reasons, this proposal would add the following wording:

Exception: Dual participation is not allowed in the sport of football.
