This form, while it was developed to encourage you to report problems, may also be used if formerly reported problems have been corrected, or if you have some positive feedback to give the NMAA. Be specific, try to stay away from personal conclusions or speculation, be brief, but make the report as complete as possible.

Examples of issues to report:

Field conditions, sportsmanship, team/coach conduct. Spectator conduct, player equipment and uniforms, ball runners, weather, pre and post-game incidents, etc.

This form may also be used by officials to report the details of misconduct red cards that are issued.
