

THE ALBUQUERQUE ISOTOPES, IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE TAYLOR HOOTON FOUNDATION AND THE NMAA, INVITE YOU TO

AN EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM AND BASEBALL CLINIC
FOCUSING ON THE DANGERS OF PERFORMANCE ENHANCING DRUGS

The Taylor Hooton Foundation was established to protect the youth of America by eliminating performance enhancing drug use. The Foundation was formed in memory of Taylor Hooton, a 16-year old high school athlete from Plano, TX. Taylor took his own life on July 15, 2003 as a result of his abuse of anabolic steroids.

What is Hoot's Chalk Talk?

"Hoot's Chalk Talk" is a FREE baseball clinic and information session for young people where they will learn sound, ethical, scientific and proven methodologies employed by professional athletes in their training. In addition, professionals will instruct participants on alternatives to performance enhancing drugs.

Who can attend?

Boys and girls (age 12-18), athletes and non-athletes, coaches and parents

What is included in the program?

- Information session educating about the short and long-term physical and emotional effects, as well as the moral and ethical considerations, of Performance Enhancing Drugs
- Baseball Clinic where participants will get to rotate through different stations featuring Isotopes players and coaches, trainers and nutritionists
- Lunch and autograph session with Isotopes players following the clinic
- 2 Tickets to the Isotopes game that evening including the opportunity for all participants to stand on the field and sign a "Play Clean Pledge" before the game
