NMHSCA Hires New Executive Secretary

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – The New Mexico High School Coaches Association has announced the hiring of Thomas Mabrey as the new Executive Secretary to replace Bobby Gibbs who has served in that position for more than three decades.

Thomas “Buster” Mabrey (40 years old), is currently the athletic director and assistant principal at Piedra Vista High School. His official start date has not been determined.

Thomas, who is originally from Hobbs, has coached and taught at Mayfield High School in Las Cruces and Snyder High School in western Texas. He also worked as an assistant director at the New Mexico Activities Association during the 2003-2004 school year.

Thomas’ responsibilities at the Coaches Association will include the administration of seventeen high school All-Star games and events, the organization of the annual coaches’ clinic, membership services, corporate development as well as all awards programs.
