

2010-2011 Eligibility Synopsis (03/01/2010-03/30/2010)

Bylaw 6.6.2

Taos High School- senior transfer student to Taos High School. The student did not participate in athletics the previous year. The NMAA ruled eligible immediately for varsity athletic participation.

Albuquerque Academy- junior transfer student to Albuquerque Academy. The student did not participate in athletics the previous year. The NMAA ruled eligible immediately for varsity athletic participation.

Gallup Catholic High School- junior transfer student to Gallup Catholic. The student did not participate in athletics the previous year. The NMAA ruled eligible immediately for varsity athletic participation.

Mountainair High School- senior transfer student to Mountainair. The student did not participate in athletics the previous year. The NMAA ruled eligible immediately for varsity athletic participation.

Bylaw 6.5.2

Dora High School- freshman transfer student Dora. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Loving High School- junior transfer student to Loving. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Ocate High School- junior transfer student to Ocate. The student previously attended a boarding school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Piedra Vista High School- junior transfer student to Piedra Vista. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Piedra Vista High School- sophomore transfer student to Piedra Vista. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Piedra Vista High School- sophomore transfer student to Piedra Vista. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Ramah High School- freshman transfer student to Ramah. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Rio Grande High School- junior transfer student to Rio Grande. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Clovis High School- sophomore transfer student to Clovis. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Cleveland High School- sophomore transfer student to Cleveland. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation

Rio Grande High School- junior transfer student to Rio Grande. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Tatum High School- junior transfer student to Tatum. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation.

Clovis Christian High School- sophomore transfer student to Clovis Christian. The student previously attended another member school. The NMAA denied varsity athletic eligibility participation. The student is eligible for sub-varsity participation

Bylaw 6.5.3

Clovis High School- junior transfer student to Clovis High School. The student and family relocated and established a permanent residence within the Clovis High attendance area. The NMAA ruled immediate varsity eligibility at Clovis High School in all sports

Cobre High School- junior transfer student to Cobre High School. The student and family relocated and established a permanent residence within the Cobre High attendance area. The NMAA ruled immediate varsity eligibility at Cobre High School in all sports

Loving High School- junior transfer student to Loving High School. The student and family relocated and established a permanent residence within the Loving High attendance area. The NMAA ruled immediate varsity eligibility at Loving High School in all sports

Ocate High School- sophomore transfer student to Ocate High School. The student and family relocated and established a permanent residence within the Ocate High attendance area. The NMAA ruled immediate varsity eligibility at Ocate High School in all sports

Ocate High School- sophomore transfer student to Ocate High School. The student and family relocated and established a permanent residence within the Ocate High attendance area. The NMAA ruled immediate varsity eligibility at Ocate High School in all sports

Grants High School- senior transfer student to Grants High School. The student and family relocated and established a permanent residence within the Grants High attendance area. The NMAA ruled immediate varsity eligibility at Grants High School in all sports