Adjudicators' Biographies

Leigh Ann McClure (Texas) – The child of two music educators, Leigh Ann McClure has been the Head Choral Director of the Central High School Choral Music Department in Keller ISD for 17 years. The CHS Choral Department consists of over 300 students, 3 directors, eight concert choirs, and two show choirs. Ms. McClure previously taught in the Arlington, Cleburne, and Alvarado ISDs. She received the BME degree from Baylor University and MME from The University of North Texas. In addition to having numerous TMEA All-State Choir members, she teaches several all-state camps each year and is an active adjudicator, clinician, and honor choir conductor. Ms. McClure has served the Texas Choral Directors' Association as Secretary; the Texas Music Educators' Association Vocal Division as Region Secretary, MS/JHS Region Coordinator, Region and Area Chair, 2012 and 2013 All-State Women's Choir Organizer, and is currently Area B Division Mentorship Chair; and the Texas Music Adjudicators' Association as Vocal Vice-President. In 2013, she was a recipient of the Texas University Scholarship League "Sponsor of Excellence" award.

McClure is particularly proud of the Keller Central Chamber Women. This ensemble is honored to have been selected as one of twelve choirs to perform at the 2024 Texas Music Educators' Convention in San Antonio. In 2021, this treble choir was named the winner of the inaugural "America's Got Choirs" contest and in 2022 was awarded "Best Live Performance" by the judges in that competition. In the spring of 2022, they were honored to perform in concert at Baylor University alongside the widely regarded Bella Voce women's ensemble. The Chamber Women were then named "Outstanding Treble Choir" in both 2022 and 2023 at the prestigious Festival Di Voce choral competition held at Dallas Baptist University and in 2023, the Chamber Women were named

"Reserve Grand Champion" at Festival di Voce as well. Most recently, the ensemble was named a National Winner in the 2023 Mark of Excellence/National Choral Honors project sponsored by The Foundation for Music Education. The choir is extremely honored to have been selected as one of twelve choirs to perform a concert at the 2024 Texas Music Educators' Convention in San Antonio.

In addition to directing this ensemble, she also conducts the Chamber Singers Mixed Choir, Scarlet Singers treble choir, and is the co-director of the Voices of Central Show Choir. In her spare time she enjoys playing golf, traveling, and spending time with her adult children and their spouses as well as her four adorable grandsons. She also enjoys singing and playing handbells at Keller United Methodist Church, where her sweetheart, Carl Lorey, is Director of Music and Worship.

Nathaniel Gillette (Wyoming) – Nathaniel Gillette is the Director of Choirs at Riverton High School and Riverton Middle School in Riverton, Wyoming, where he directs a jazz choir, a women's choir, mixed choirs, and serves as the music director for both the high school and middle school musicals. Nathaniel is an active member of ACDA and NAFME, teaches voice privately, and is an active clinician and adjudicator. Nathaniel holds a Master of Arts in Vocal Performance from the University of Wyoming, a Bachelor of Arts in Music and a Master of Arts in Music Education from Truman State University, and a Specialist Certificate in Live Sound and Acoustics from the Berklee College of Music.

Matias Garcia (Texas) - Matias A. ‘Matt’ Garcia, has been a music educator for 48 years. He is a graduate of Texas A&I University in Kingsville, TX. He has taught music at all levels, from pre-K to community college. He was very active in his community, in Laredo and was honored with a proclamation by the Laredo City Council. In Laredo, he played many leading roles for the Laredo Little Theater. He has taught in Alice, Laredo’s Nixon and Martin High School ,VMT Magnet School, Brownsville’s St. Joseph Academy, New York, and Miami and for 1996-2014 was the Choir Coordinator for Donna ISD. He also served as the Choir Chair for the Texas Music Educators Association in Region 28 Under his leadership, the Donna Choir program, grew strong and all the choirs have received a UIL Sweepstakes rating. Mr. Garcia is known for his rendition of the National Anthem and has sung for Several Texas Governors, the Joint House of Legislature of Texas, for the Governor of the Day, honoring Laredo’s Sen. Judith Zaffarini. His choir in Laredo, TX. was invited to perform for the Texas Association of School Boards and Texas Association of Secondary Administrators. Most recently, he was invited to sing for the Council of State Governments National Convention in San Antonio and was honored with the Honorary Title of Singer Laureate, for the State of Texas. He was chosen in 2014 to be the Texas All-State Tenor-Bass Choir section leader. He is a member of TMEA, TCDA TMAA and ACDA. He is married to Maria Alonzo Garcia and has two children Natalie and John Paul. Mr. Garcia has been retired since 2014 but continues to consult and adjudicate at several Schools in Texas. He resides in Weslaco Texas.
